

ENERGY AND FOOD

4th Interdisciplinary Winter School 2020
Graduate Center Munich School of Engineering

Goals

- Exploring challenges in times of urbanization, population rise and climate change
- Understanding the relation between food, energy and water
- Assessing sustainability aspects in food production processes and the whole supply chain
- Recognizing the need of a holistic approach in evaluating food systems
- Discovering cutting-edge indoor cultivation
- Networking and scientific interdisciplinary exchange

Save the date

- February 16 - 20, 2020 in Ohlstadt
- Costs: 500 € p.p. (incl. excursion, board, lodging),
- Who: up to 30 participants (doctoral candidates, post graduates)
- Application deadline: Dec. 05, 2019
- Up to 3 ECTS
- For further information please visit:
<http://www.mse.tum.de/winterschool2020>

